

Welcome to St Mary's

Sunday 22nd April 2018 - The 4th Sunday of Easter

We warmly welcome you as we gather together for our Sunday worship.

As we gather it is my prayer that through our worship in song, liturgy and from reading and hearing from God's word that we all in some way encounter Jesus who watches over us.

Today our scripture readings take us back to a familiar theme of the Good Shepherd as found in John chapter 10. Both the much-loved Psalm 23 and John 20 also use the image of a shepherd who offers pastoral and practical care to his flock. In the psalm, God is the shepherd; in the Gospel, Jesus claims that he is the Shepherd. I am the Good Shepherd, it is one of those claims that challenges us not only to think of Jesus as Lord but also to know him as our God.

Shepherds are lowly figures but their protection and care is sacrificial. Even read pre-crucifixion, it is clear that Jesus is speaking in terms of giving something up for the sake of his 'flock'. Read post-Easter, the full truth of his sacrifice is resoundingly evident; and were it not for Jesus' promise of help, the challenge for us to follow in his footsteps would be almost too much to bear. But to trust the Shepherd and follow is the call for all of us to do.

with love from Peter

Speak, O Lord, as we come to You
To receive the food of Your Holy Word.
Take Your truth, plant it deep in us;
Shape and fashion us in Your likeness,
That the light of Christ might be seen today
In our acts of love and our deeds of faith.
Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us
All Your purposes for Your glory.

Teach us, Lord, full obedience,
Holy reverence, true humility;
Test our thoughts and our attitudes
In the radiance of Your purity.
Cause our faith to rise; cause our eyes to see
Your majestic love and authority.
Words of pow'r that can never fail
Let their truth prevail over unbelief.

Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds;
Help us grasp the heights of Your plans for us—
Truths unchanged from the dawn of time
That will echo down through eternity.
And by grace we'll stand on Your promises,
And by faith we'll walk as You walk with us.
Speak, O Lord, till Your church is built
And the earth is filled with Your glory.
