

28th April Second Sunday of Easter

Welcome to St Mary's

Alleluia Christ is risen!
He is risen indeed, alleluia!

As the first Easter events unfold the disciples in amazement declare that Christ has risen! However, we know from today's scripture, that for whatever reason, Thomas was not present when Jesus appeared on that first Easter Sunday.

Although known as doubting Thomas, I sense that Thomas is more like us than maybe we would claim to be ourselves. After all, don't we all want to be sure of the facts and review the evidence. So Thomas, maybe wondering if the others had been delusional with grief, wanted to be sure. He wanted to touch the living Jesus whom he knew had died and had been laid in the tomb. A week later Thomas did indeed meet the risen the Lord. No longer doubting, this eye witness of the resurrection, boldly proclaimed My Lord and My God! As the Good News spreads out from Jerusalem it is recorded that it was Thomas who with boldness and confidence took the Good News eastward into India and through his testimony many came to faith in Jesus and still do today.

So don't doubt, trust in Thomas and the many other accounts of the resurrection each one announcing Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!

with love from Peter
