Sunday 24th July

Betty Tinley

Many of us were touched by Betty's gentle, kind and loving personality. Last week at St Mary's Jacqui reflected that she was both a Martha and Mary of the church. She loved to be involved, organising and doing this or that for the church family. Likewise she loved to sit at the feet of Jesus and learn more about her Lord and Saviour. She set us a wonderful example of faith. She was indeed a child of God and although we mourn her passing we also rejoice that in heaven Betty and Mike are reunited and no doubt organising the next get together for Jesus and the Angels.

Please remember her daughters and their family in your prayers.

A Memorial Service of Thanksgiving for Betty's life will take place at St Mary's on Friday 29th July at 11am.
Followed by a Funeral Breakfast at Kings Acre

The Times they are a changing

From Sunday 7th August to Sunday 30th October Sunday Morning worship will begin at 10am in both Churches.

This is for a trial period and we welcome your feedback. However we are aware that this change will also call for us to consider a different pattern of worship as it is unclear whether we can operate as we currently are. More details to follow.....

Welcome

The Lord be with you
And also with you

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn

IMMORTAL, INVISIBLE, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessèd, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy justice like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all life Thou givest, to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish; but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight;
All laud we would render: O help us to see
'Tis only the splendour of light hideth Thee.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessèd, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.

Confession and Absolution

God is love and we are his children.
There is no room for fear in love.
We love because he loved us first.

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith.

God our Father, we confess to you and to our fellow members in the Body of Christ that we have sinned in thought, word and deed, and in what we have failed to do. We are truly sorry.
Forgive us our sins, and deliver us from the power of evil, for the sake of your Son who died for us, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

God, who is both power and love,
forgive us and free us from our sins,
heal and strengthen us by his Spirit,
and raise us to new life in Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyries Kyrie, Kyrie eleison,
Christe, Christe, eleison, Kyrie, Kyrie eleison

Gloria Glory to God, glory to God, glory to the Father Glory to God, glory to God, glory to the Father
To him be glory for ever!
To him be glory for ever!
Alleluia, amen, Alleluia, amen. Alleluia, amen,

Glory to God, glory to God, Son of the Father
Glory to God, glory to God, Son of the Father
To him be glory for ever!
To him be glory for ever!
Alleluia, amen, Alleluia, amen. Alleluia, amen,

Glory to God, glory to God, glory to the Spirit
Glory to God, glory to God, glory to the Spirit
To him be glory for ever!
To him be glory for ever!
Alleluia, amen, Alleluia, amen. Alleluia, amen,

Collect O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy,
that with you as our ruler and guide,
we may so pass through things temporal,
that we lose not the things eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Reading Colossians 2:6-15

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ.

For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form, and in Christ you have been brought to fullness. He is the head over every power and authority. In him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not performed by human hands. Your whole self ruled by the flesh was put off when you were circumcised by Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through your faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having cancelled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

Hymn

AS THE DEER pants for the water,
So my soul longs after You.
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship You.

You alone are my strength, my shield,
To You alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship You.

I want You more than gold or silver,
Only You can satisfy.
You alone are the real joy-giver
And the apple of my eye.

You're my Friend and You are my Brother,
Even though You are a King.
I love You more than any other,
So much more than anything.

Gospel

Hear the Gospel of our Lord according to Luke 11:1-13
Glory to Christ our Saviour

One day Jesus was praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said, 'Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.'

He said to them, 'When you pray, say:
"Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come.
Give us each day our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we also forgive everyone who sins against us.
And lead us not into temptation.'"

Then Jesus said to them, 'Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him." And suppose the one inside answers, "Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything." I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your shameless audacity he will surely get up and give you as much as you need.

'So I say to you: ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

'Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

Give thanks to the Lord for his glorious Gospel.

Praise to Christ our Lord.

Sermon

Hymn

O LORD YOUR TENDERNESS

O Lord, Your tenderness
melting all my bitterness!
O Lord, I receive Your love.
O Lord, Your loveliness,
changing all my ugliness,
O Lord, I receive Your love,
O Lord, I receive Your love,
O Lord, I receive Your love.

O Lord, Your Holiness
Cleanses all my sinfulness,
O Lord, I receive Your love,
O Lord, Your Majesty
Lifts my soul and sets me free,
O Lord, I receive Your love,
O Lord, I receive Your love,
O Lord, I receive Your love.

The Creed We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one substance with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For all humanity and for our salvation
he came down from heaven;
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son, he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Intercessions Prayer is offered for the Church, the world and its people

Peace The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you

We share a sign of peace

Hymn

GOD FORGAVE MY SIN IN JESUS' NAME,

I've been born again in Jesus' name;
And in Jesus' name I come to you
To share His love as He told me to.

He said: 'Freely, freely, you have received,
Freely, freely give;
Go in My name, and because you believe
Others will know that I live.'

All power is given in Jesus' name,
In earth and heaven in Jesus' name;
And in Jesus' name I come to you
To share His power as He told me to.

Offering:

Let us present our offerings to the Lord.

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory,
the splendour, and the majesty;
for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.

All things come from you, and of your own we give you. Amen

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Worship and praise belong to you, Father,
in every place and at all times.

All power is yours.

You created the heavens and established the earth;
you sustain in being all that is.

In Christ your Son our life and yours are brought together in a wonderful exchange.

He made his home among us that we might for ever dwell in you.

Through your Holy Spirit you call us to new birth in a creation restored by love.

As children of your redeeming purpose we offer you our praise with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, singing the hymn of your unending glory:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving Father,
for the gift of your Son born in human flesh.
He is the Word existing beyond time, both source and final purpose, bringing to wholeness all that is made.
Obedient to your will he died upon the Cross.
By your power you raised him from the dead.
He broke the bonds of evil and set your people free to be his Body in the world.

On the night when he was given up to death,
knowing that his hour had come,
having loved his own, he loved them to the end.
At supper with his disciples
he took bread and offered you thanks.
He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying:
'Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you.'

After supper, he took the cup, he offered you thanks, and gave it to them saying:
'Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant;
it is poured out for you, and for all, that sins may be forgiven.
Do this in remembrance of me.'

We now obey your Son's command.
We recall his blessed passion and death,
his glorious resurrection and ascension;
and we look for the coming of his Kingdom.
Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy, living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful Father, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by his life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Help us, who are baptised into the fellowship of Christ's Body to live and work to your praise and glory; may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the Virgin Mary, the apostles and prophets, and of all our brothers and sisters living and departed.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be to you, Lord of all ages, world without end. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The living bread is broken for the life of the world
Lord, unite us in this sign.

Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour has commanded and taught us, we are bold to say:
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Do not bring us to the time of trial but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Communion Song

Jesus, Lamb of God: have mercy on us.
Jesus, bearer of our sins: have mercy on us.
Jesus, redeemer of the world: Give us your peace.

Distribution of Communion

THANKSGIVING AND SENDING OUT

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is gracious.

And his mercy endures for ever.

God of grace, we have received the memorial of the death and resurrection of your Son.

May your love, poured into us, bring us to your promises.

We ask this in the name of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ.

Blessing

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

Hymn

ALL MY HOPE ON GOD IS FOUNDED;

he doth still my trust renew.

Me through change and chance he guideth only good and only true.

God unknown, he alone calls my heart to be his own.

Human pride and earthly glory,
sword and crown betray his trust;
what with care and toil he buildeth,
tower and temple, fall to dust.

But God's power, hour by hour, is my temple and my tower

God's great goodness aye endureth, deep his wisdom, passing thought:
splendour, light, and life attend him,
beauty springeth out of naught.

Evermore from his store new-born worlds rise and adore.

Still from earth to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done, high above all praises praising for the gift of Christ his Son.

Christ doth call one and all: ye who follow shall not fall.

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

do join with us for refreshments served at the close of the service

Faith in our Future

*Father God,
we long to share in your vision for our churches.
Lead us as we step forward in faith.
Increase our sensitivity to the Holy Spirit.
Free us from the fear that propels us towards rash decisions.
Help us to humble ourselves and trust your plans for us.
Draw us closer You and each other.
And as your vision for our churches emerges in our hearts, help us to rejoice that the Holy Spirit is at work in us, for the glory and praise of your name. Amen.*

The Visioning Questionnaire - a Summary Part 2

Last week I gave a brief reflection on questions 1-4 of our recent Questionnaire responses and so this week I will reflect on some of the responses from the questions 5-8.

Q5 What can we do to offer more care and support for the elderly and vulnerable in our congregation/community?

Offer a short once a month afternoon service with afternoon tea. Make contact with Social Services to help identify needs and opportunities to engage with the elderly. Offer or organise transport to and from church. Pastoral Group do an amazing amount of work already what does the Rector do? Services in Care Homes, offering Home Communion.

I acknowledge that we are often regarded as a small church but amazingly we do many good things through the good will and support of many individuals for which we give thanks. Over the testing time of the pandemic the Pastoral Groups rose to the challenge and we quickly set up a telephone network committing ourselves to phoning and caring for those connected with the church. Alongside this Fiona and myself began regular weekly visits to many of our elderly and vulnerable people who did not have access to the internet to distribute a hard copy of the connect news.

As we continue into the future before us pastoral care will remain one of the main areas of concern. So our thanks go to all those on the Pastoral groups who help serve the church in this way. Moving forward there are a number of good ideas possibilities. I like the idea of a monthly afternoon tea service. Likewise a more coordinated approach to offering lifts may be possible and maybe we could enquire about using the community minibuses? As Rector in the coming term I will be committing myself to phoning and if requested visiting you and everyone on our current membership list.

Q6 How can we encourage children and youth to discover Christian faith?

Messy Church is good but how do we build on this, I don't know, this is a job for the Clergy, engaging with schools, work with other churches doing youth work. Start a Sunday School or a Family service. Welcome them when they come. Employ a Youth or Family worker instead of a Rector.

I acknowledge that along with many other churches we often struggle to engage with families, children and young people. We do have a number of existing connections and activities with families and young people but as we don't often see them on a Sunday morning we often forget they are there. One of the questions to consider going forward is what is the focus of Sunday Morning Services? Do we want families and young people to be part of the Sunday worship and if yes how should we make them welcome? We give thanks for the work of Messy Church and aspire to build upon this work. The profile of our Ecumenical Youth Fellowship (12 to 17's) needs to be raised as it regularly meets during term time. It was launched an number of years ago and at one point the majority of those attending were from our own churches. Looking forward there are plans to support a Young Adults group for those that 17+. As a church we do have a number of resources and people with the skill set to do various roles but if we are serious about Families, Children and Young People then maybe we do need to look at investing in a Youth or Families worker so that we can offer more than what we are currently offering.

Q7. How can we engage in the wider community better?

Improve our communications, raise our profile, leaflet drop new housing, by getting involved ourselves in other community events, Good to see the church and or Hall being used by the community, host more events for the community. Find out needs of different community groups, run Alpha or discussion groups giving people an opportunity to explore Christianity.

It was encouraging to read about the openness and desire we have not just to be a church open for worship but to have our grounds and building open and used by the community. Over the last few months St Mary's has shown that the building can be creatively used by a number of different groups. This has come about by a few of our members volunteering with other community groups and then inviting them to consider using the church. So our question going forward might be what groups are you involved in and would you be open to inviting them to come and use the our buildings. Community engagement builds up links with individuals and helps raise our profile in the community. From there invitations could flow to welcome people on to a discussion group or course and hopefully even to come and join with us for worship.

Since the Questionnaire took place there has been concerns expressed about the cost of living crisis we are all facing and what our response might be as a church. There is an increase in the use of Food Banks and even a thought that people may need a Heat Bank, a place of warmth? The idea is to offer a place of warmth, a cuppa and chat to those in need. Could we do this? How would it work?

Q8 What should the church do to be a centre of hope In your community?

Church open for prayer/solace, prayer activity in grounds, a place for people to leave requests for prayer

On reflection Q8 is similar to Q7. Nevertheless the responses generally called for the church to be open and used a place of prayer. We are currently looking at opening St Mary's and are planning to have CCTV system fitted to provide both a deterrent and some form of security for the building. At both churches we are looking also at how to use the grounds more. St Leonard's has begun sprucing itself up with some much needed garden work and the painting of the hall in the coming months we hope to continue to clear and better define the garden and look at how to use it as a place of welcome.

The Vestries and Clergy Team and the congregations will continue to look at the response that have been made. Where we can act we will try and accommodate some of the suggestions. Other ideas may need to be further thought through and budget for if required. Overall we seek to be faithful to God, to care for one another and to reach out in love to every generation.

Supporting Ukrainian Refugees

As we have been waiting and praying about hosting a Ukrainian family much work has been taking place in preparation. This includes a vetting procedure by Midlothian Council which is the last step before we will be allocated a family.

SO now is the time to consider pledging your on-going support or making a one off donation in aid of the churches effort to house a refugee family.

You can make an online bank transfer using St Leonard's Account

Bank of Scotland Account No: 00908045

Sort Code: 80 06 29

Please mark the payment Ukraine Refugee.

Or place a donation in an envelope marked "Ukraine Refugee" and place it in our weekly offering plate or pass to Anne McKay at St Mary's or Tom Mooney at St Leonard's. If you are able to pledge a monthly amount for the next six months to a year please do speak to your treasurer about the best way to make a regular donation. Thank You
