The Season of Hope and Expectation

Weekly News from St Leonard's and St Mary's 1st Sunday of Advent - Hope

Dear Friends,

As Advent begins we light our first candle to symbolise hope. Hope in an ancient story of long ago passed down from generation to generation. Hope in the darkness of life, within the horrors of war, within the pain and the struggles of life.

Hope like a candle being touched by a flame needs to be rekindled in us by the presence of God around us. As we remember the promises of old and their fulfilment may we be encouraged to place our hope afresh in God. God promised and it came to pass. Yes it took many years, many struggles and challenges along the way but the promised hope of a Messiah was sown among the people and in God's timing came to pass in the birth of Jesus.

At times we may indeed wonder, where is God? It is then as we cry out from our brokenness within the brokenness of the world that we need to hold on to the promises of God. For one day what we are going through will pass away. Jesus himself faced the despair of the Garden of Gethsemane, the pain, the sorrow of the heavy burden placed upon him before the joy dawned again on Easter Sunday.

With Advent anticipation and hope we therefore call to mind the promises of our Lord. We remember that Jesus said that he goes to prepare a place for us. And because he goes and prepares a place for us, He will return for us, so that we too can be where he is. One day just as the promised hope of the Messiah to come came to pass with the birth of Jesus, so too will Christ return.

As we light our first candle of Advent we are being commissioned to be a people of hope. To be beacons of hope shining in the darkness, shedding the light of hope into others' lives through the words we use, the actions we do and the prayers we say. We are to be flames of hope, supporting and lighting up one another as we remember the fulfilment of the promises of old and declare that the Lord will return and one day take us to be with him.

with love and anticipation, Peter

Welcome

The Gathering

The Lord be with you
and also with you

'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the temple of our God
He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths.'

He will judge between the nations
and will settle disputes for many peoples.

They will beat their swords into ploughshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war any more.

Come, O people of God
let us walk in the light of the Lord.

The first candle of Advent is lit for Hope

Hymn THE ADVENT OF OUR KING our prayers must now employ, and we must hymns of welcome sing in strains of holy joy.

The everlasting Son incarnate deigns to be;
himself a servant's form puts on to set his servants free.

Daughter of Zion, rise to meet thy lowly King, nor let thy faithless heart despise the peace he comes to bring.

As Judge, on clouds of light, he soon will come again, and all his scattered saints unite with him in heaven to reign.

All glory to the Son who comes to set us free, with Father, Spirit, ever One, through all eternity.

A prayer of confession

God is love and we are his children. There is no room for fear in love.
We love because he loved us first.

God our Father, we confess to you and to our fellow members in the body of Christ that we have sinned in thought, word and deed, and in what we have failed to do.

We are truly sorry.

Forgive us our sins, and deliver us from the power of evil, for the sake of your Son who died for us, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

God, who is both power and love, forgive us and free us from our sins, heal and strengthen us by his Spirit, and raise us to new life in Christ
Amen

KYRIES KYRIE, KYRIE, ELEISON

Christe, Christe, eleison

Kyrie, Kyrie, eleison

Reading of Scripture Isaiah 2.2-5

In the last days the mountain of the Lord's temple will be established as the highest of the mountains;

it will be exalted above the hills, and all nations will stream to it.

Many peoples will come and say,
'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the temple of the God of Jacob.

He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths.'

The law will go out from Zion, the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

He will judge between the nations
and will settle disputes for many peoples.

They will beat their swords into ploughshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war any more.

Come, descendants of Jacob,
let us walk in the light of the Lord.

Hymn

HARK THE GLAD SOUND! THE SAVIOUR COMES,

The Saviour promised long;
Let every heart prepare a throne, and every voice a song.

He comes the prisoners to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before Him burst, the iron fetters yield.

He comes the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of His grace to enrich the humble poor.

Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim;
And heaven's eternal arches ring with Thy beloved name.

The Gospel Reading

Hear the Gospel of the Lord according to Matthew 24.36-44

Glory to Christ our Saviour.

About that final day or hour no one knows, not the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left. Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.

‘Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. But understand this: if the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

Give thanks to the Lord for his glorious Gospel.

Praise to Christ our Lord.

Sermon

Hymn Open your eyes see the glory of the King;
Lift up your voice, and his praises sing!
I love you Lord, I will proclaim!
Alleluia! I bless your name.

The Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers for Today

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you
And also with you

Hymn THY KINGDOM COME O GOD,

Thy rule, O Christ, begin;
break with Thine iron rod the tyrannies of sin.

Where is Thy reign of peace,
and purity, and love?
When shall all hatred cease,
as in the realms above?

When comes the promised time that war shall be no more—Oppression, lust, and crime, shall flee Thy face before?

We pray Thee, Lord, arise, and come in Thy great might;
Revive our longing eyes, which languish for Thy sight.

Men scorn Thy sacred Name,
and wolves devour Thy fold;
By many deeds of shame
we learn that love grows cold.

O'er lands both near and far thick darkness broodeth yet:
Arise, O Morning Star, arise, and never set!

Offering: Let us present our offerings to the Lord.

Yours, Lord, is the greatness,
the power, the glory, the splendour, and the majesty;
for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.
All things come from you, and of your own we give you.
Amen

Eucharistic Prayer II Anticipation

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Worship and praise belong to you, God our maker.

Out of nothing, you called all worlds to be,

and still you draw the universe to its fulfilment.

Dawn and evening celebrate your glory till time shall be no more.

In Christ your Son the life of heaven and earth were joined, sealing the promise of a new creation, given, yet still to come.

Taught by your Spirit, we who bear your threefold likeness look for the City of Peace in whose light we are transfigured and the earth transformed.

As children of your redeeming purpose who await the coming of your Son,

we offer you our praise, with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven singing the hymn of your unending glory:

Holy, holy, holy Lord

God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving Father.

In Jesus you showed us yourself.

Our hope is built on him, the first, the last, the living one.

Obedient, even to accepting death,

he opened the gate of glory and calls us now to share the life of heaven.

Before he was given up to suffering and death, alight with the vision of a feast that heralded a kingdom yet to come, at supper with his disciples he took bread and offered you thanks.
He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying:
"Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you."

After supper, he took the cup, he offered you thanks and gave it to them, saying:
"Drink this, all of you.
This is my Blood of the new covenant;
it is poured out for you, and for all, that sins may be forgiven.
Do this in remembrance of me."

We now obey your Son's command.
We recall his blessed passion and death,
his glorious resurrection and ascension;
and we look for the coming of his Kingdom.
Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy, living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful Father, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by his life-giving power,
they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Help us, who are baptised into the fellowship of Christ's Body to live and work to your praise and glory;
may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the Virgin Mary, the apostles and prophets, and of all our brothers and sisters living and departed.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be to you,
Lord of all ages, world without end.

Amen.

Breaking of Bread

The living bread is broken for the life of the world.
Lord, unite us in this sign.

Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour Christ has commanded and taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Song

Jesus, Lamb of God: have mercy on us.
Jesus, bearer of our sins: have mercy on us.
Jesus, redeemer of the world:
Give us your peace x3

Distribution of Communion

All are welcome to come and receive communion or a blessing

The Blessing

Christ the Sun of Righteousness shine upon you and scatter the darkness from before your path;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
Amen

Hymn

HAIL TO THE LORD'S ANOINTED, Great David's greater Son!
Hail in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression, to set the captive free;
To take away transgression, and rule in equity.

He comes with succour speedy to those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy, and bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing, their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying, are precious in his sight.

He shall come down like showers upon the fruitful earth;
Love, joy, and hope, like flowers, spring in his path to birth.
Before him on the mountains, shall peace, the herald, go,
And righteousness, in fountains, from hill to valley flow.

Kings shall fall down before Him, and gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore Him, His praise all people sing;
For He shall have dominion o'er river, sea and shore,
Far as the eagle's pinion or dove's light wing can soar.

O'er every foe victorious, He on His throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious, all blessing and all blest.
The tide of time shall never His covenant remove;
His Name shall stand forever, His Name to us is Love.

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord in the name of Christ Amen

do join with us for refreshment and fellowship at the close of the service

Ukrainian Family - Answered Prayers

We were finding it difficult to find suitable accommodation for the Raichev family (Tetania (Mum), Hennadii (Dad), Mykhailo (son) and Alina (daughter)) and although initially it looked like there were a few available on enquiring with letting agents all had been allocated, some annoyingly had not been taken down from the various websites leading us to have false hope. However, after a week of prayer and searching we are glad to say that two suitable properties came on the market this week and one especially fitted the family more than could have been asked for.

We now need to co-ordinate with those who have offered items to help the family as they plan to move into their accommodation in early December. Please do speak to Vicki or Fiona if you have anything you may think is suitable. We will endeavour to make a list of what we have and of what we need and let you know in the coming weeks.

Thank You for your prayers and support

St Leonard's Organ Fund.

Following the St Leonard's AGM on 30th October it was proposed to set up an organ fund to help preserve our unique organ. It is costly to keep, needing regular tuning as well as trying to find and pay a new organist.

To start this fund I would like to sell old complete china tea sets on Ebay.

At the moment that is a popular item. Please have a look in the back of your cupboards and maybe your friends cupboards as well. I photograph the china, sell it and pack and post all over the UK. I have been doing this for Gorebridge Parish Church for the last few years and it does make a bit of money. So please consider supporting our new Organ Fund

Thanks. Judy Strong

As well as raising funds in this way donations to the Organ Fund can be placed in an envelope marked Organ Fund and left in the offering bowl

Working with the local churches the Storehouses work touches many families and with an increase in demand due to the cost of living crisis asks you to consider supporting them with a donation as they prepare to help families with food parcels this year.

Pot noodles or similar easy to make meals
UHT Milk (blue box), Diluting juice
Tubs of hot chocolate — hot water mix
Bags of multi pack crisps
Cans of macaroni cheese, Cans of ravioli
Cans of custard, Cans of rice pudding
Multi pack Kit Kats, and other snacks bars
Selection Boxes or Boxes of Chocolates

Thank You for your generosity and love

Pet Food Bank

Tuesday 20th December

St Mary's 10-12 Noon

Please do let friends and neighbours who may be struggling with Pet Food bills know that they are welcome to come along and enjoy the warm space of St Mary's, have a cuppa and collect some free food for their pets.

THE LINK BOOK CLUB

O CALEDONIA

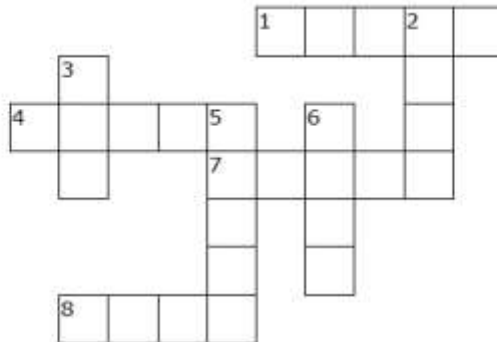

This book by Elspeth Barker has been described as the “best least-known novel of the twentieth century”. It is a dark and sometimes disturbing book about Janet who lives with her dysfunctional family in a cold dank stately home, Auchnasaugh, somewhere in Aberdeenshire. Janet is eccentric, unpopular and sometimes wicked, not a likeable character, and we follow her short life as she is murdered on the first page at 16! There are moments of black hilarity and also sadness as Janet is isolated, finding solace in animals and her books. Elspeth Barker wrote the most wonderful prose but sadly did not write any other novels, concentrating on writing reviews and poetry.

Our next book is “The call of the Cormorant” by Donald Murray and we meet again at St. Mary’s on January 27th. All are welcome to join us.
